SATURDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 27.

NEGRO'S EAR FOR A MASCOT.—The ear of the negro which Oliver Curtis Perry carried about with him as a trophy, and which he boasted at Lyons he had cut off with his own hand, is now in evidence to prove that the train robber's father and stepmother had been harboring him at their home in Syracuse, N. Y., for a week prior to his latest escape. Miss Mattie Ayffs, a neighbor of Oliver H. Curtis, the robber's father, says that she met the young man, or one that she supposes is he, at the Perry house a week ago and that they called him "Hopkins." While at the house one day the elder Perry brought a bottle out of a bed-room which contained a negro's ear pickled in alcohol. The bottle was sealed with white wax. Mr. Perry then said that the young man was a cunning fellow. Perry, the train robber, carried this pickled negro's ear in his valise as a sort of mascot. It was found in the valise which he left at a railroad station in Syracuse.

Some people are born freckled and others have freckles thrust upon them. The former class might as well accept their freckles as a dispensation of Providence, for nothing can be done for them. The latter can always get rid of their affliction by using a couple of drachms of our ammonia water, a cure of German cologne, the solution mixed with a pint of distilled water. Applied two or three times a day, says the Scientific American, it will cure the worst case of acquired freckles on record.
